HONGKONG, OCTOBER 14th, 1896.It is impossible not to sympathise with the grievances of the Macanese, in having the dead weight of Timor financially dragging them down. Timor has always been a sort of Old Man of the Sea to Macao. The former colony has never, we believe, really paid its way, and as it is administratively attached to Macao, its chronic impotency has been a perennial affliction to our little neighbour.
Of late the burden has been more intolerable than ever. The misguided dependency has been in a state of rebellion, and funds have been needed to pay for the arms and forces required to suppress the disorder.
The Macao Treasury has had to bear the brunt of it. A new wharf is needed in Timor, and, as the colonists there have not the wherewithal to pay for it, a substantial iron structure is decided on, to cost sixty thousand dollars. The bill, of course, is passed on to Macao to settle. And so on with other things. The revenue of Macao was last year $633,178.76 and the expenditure $519,777.23 showing a balance at credit of $143,701.52; while Timor had a deficit of $107,428.10.
This has to be made good out of Macao's surplus. Unfortunately for the Holy City, the surplus is needed for her own wants.
The Praya wall, in part, destroyed by the typhoon of July 25th last, still awaits repair, and the much-needed dredging and harbour works are yet in abeyance. It is true that, after a long delay, the Lisbon Government were brought to approve a small outlay on this latter vitally important work, and they have at last grudgingly sanctioned an outlay of $23,400 for the commencement of the harbour improvement enterprise, and $15,025 for the loan and interest during the year. Nor is Timor the sole drain on the resources of Macao. Never a man-of-war or transport comes out here but it is docked and repaired at the expense of the unfortunate colony. The ships seem to be stuck here to get repaired, and so soon as they have got their hulls and machinery in through working order, they are ordered back to Portugal to be replaced by others similarly in need of overhaul, all to be done at the cost of poor Macao.The Singapore papers contain telegraphic intelligence from Peking that Captain Ross, of the steamer Boat, has been stranded at Eddies in Amakine. His condition is critical, but we trust he will be in a more hopeful state when he arrives. The man who committed the crime, however, was immediately tried and executed.The News says—With Mr. W. M.

THE STORY OF THE ARCTIC OCEAN Being a Series of Ten Articles Descriptive of the Polar Regions, Life and Perils in the Arctic Seas, &c.
By DR. GORDON STABLES, R.N.
To Greenland and the Polar Regions, "The Cruise of the Snowbird," a Natural and Scientific, &c.

THE great amount of interest taken by the public at present in the Frozen North, and in the recent various Polar Expeditions, indicates the timeliness of a Series of Articles dealing with the Arctic Regions, and which by a combination of interest and beauty, it is announced, will be the Syndicate of which the Hongkong Daily Press is a member, has commissioned Dr. Gordon Stables to write such a Series. Dr. Stables, who enjoys large popularity as an Author, has twice visited the Polar Regions, and there is little about the Arctic Circle that he does not know and is able to describe most graphically. The first Article appeared on 12th October, 1896.
